

A. He has resided in it thirteen years, and near it for twenty-two years, and knows pretty nearly everybody in it.

What did you understand by "Democrat" in the conversation referred to?

A. Those who did not vote for the New Constitution.

How many votes were cast for the New Constitution in District No. 1?

A. Don't know.

The above has been read to me and is correct.

Written and attested to by Henry Page, Clerk.

John H. Goddard, a witness produced on behalf of the claimant, being duly sworn, answers and says to the general interrogatories:

To the first interrogatory.

Am Forty-five years—been a voter 24 years—resided in 1865 in Quantico District, No. 2.

2nd.

A. Did apply—no charge, no witnesses—took the oath and answered all the questions asked. After answering the questions, one of the registers, Mr. Mills, said in reply to the question aforesaid, that there was no charge against me and probably would be none. That he didn't see how there could be any, seeing that I had worked so long for the Government. I supposed I was registered as a voter until I went up to vote and was not permitted.

3d.

A. Did not vote—would have voted for Mr. Franklin.
