W. T. DARBY.

Attested and to written by Henry Page, Clerk.

Levin Graham, a witness produced on behalf of claimant being duly sworn, answers and says:

To the first interrogatory :

A. About 45 years, I am said to be 45 years, not that I know it myself; been a voter 20 years, I expect; resided in 1865 in Barren Creek Dirtrict.

2d.

A. Did apply, believing myself as loyal a man as there was; took the oath; answered all the questions so far as I understood them, except when they asked if I was in favor of money and men, I said, I never was in favor of their having me; they sent an officer with a summons to come back again; I came before them according to the summons; said I, gentlemen, what have you summoned me before you for;
