

Gravener (one of the Registers,) said, you must give two loyal men for your security for your loyaltyship; then I told him I should do no such thing, that they could cheat me out of only a few years if I didn't get to vote; they said no more to me; but I spoke to Mr. Holten, before I left, I said to the Registers enquire of my neighbors about me; I said to Mr. Holten, I wish a word with you; I want to know what objections you have to me, said he, any person that is not for us is against us; he knew well I was a Democrat.

3d.

A. I did not vote, came out to vote, did not vote because I was not registered, would have voted for Franklin.

4th. Waived.

Cross-Examination :

Q. Was or not the question alluded to in your examination in chief in this form, "were you in favor of furnishing money and men to put down the Rebellion?"

A. I think it was something like that; I replied I was not willing for them to have me; I was in favor of money and men, for all that wanted to go and for those who wanted to spend their money.

(The contestant object as not a proper answer to the last clause of the above reply.)

1st.

A. I never made my tongue a newspaper, and never meddled with the war though I was glad for it to stop.

2d.

A. Yes, I was.

3d.

A. Not that I know of now, I have forgot.

4th.

A. I don't recollect now.

5th.

A. I certainly can't tell, its something I didn't pay much attention to.

The above has been read to me and is correct.
