

A. Raised in the year 1860.

Q. How long was that company in operation?

A. It broke up at the time of the riot in Baltimore—April, 1861.

Q. Against whom was this company intended to protect the State?

A. Any rebellion that might come.

Q. At what time did this company receive their arms?

A. The Captain started for Baltimore for the arms on the date of that riot; I understood the company never received their arms.

Q. What was the cause of the company's being disbanded?

A. I can't say, but because, I suppose, he couldn't get his arms.

1st. Cross-Interrogatory:
