

Cross-Examination:

To the first interrogatory :

A. No, sir; I had very little to say over it. I was selling goods under the Government and was afraid to express myself.

2d.

A. I was very sorry for it, because I thought it would make a bad country for us.

3d.

A. Not at all, except that I was sorry for the men that were killed on both sides.

4th.

A. If I had a choice I should say I was for the South, but I didn't aid or assist them any.

5th and 6th. Waived.

Re-direct Examination.

To the filed re-direct interrogatory:

A. No, sir; never did.

The above has been read to me and is correct.

WILLIAM H. WATERS.

Attested to and written by Henry Page, Clerk.

Henry W. Matthews, a witness produced on behalf of claimant, being duly sworn, answers and says :

To the first interrogatory :

A. Five years; been a voter two years; resided in District No. 6 in 1865.

2d.

A. I did apply the second day of their sitting, took the oath, answered all their questions, no charge, no witnesses.

3d.

A. Did not vote because I was not registered; would have voted the Democratic ticket, for Franklin.
