

4th. Waived.

Cross-Examination.

1st:

A. I don't think I did.

2d:

A. The most regret was at the slaughter of the men, I didn't rejoice at the defeat of either army during the war, to the best of my recollection.

3d:

A. I disremember.

4th:

A. Don't recollect that I ever did.

5th:

A. I think not.

6th. Waived.

1st. Re-Direct Interrogatory:

A. No, sir.

The above has been read to me and is correct.

SAMUEL T. ADAMS.

Attested to and written by Henry Page, Clerk.

---

Henry J. Johnson, a witness produced on behalf of Claimant, being duly sworn, answers and says:

1st. Interrogatory:

A. Thirty-four years, took the oath, no charge, no witnesses, the first time I applied, on the day of review I was notified by the Constable to meet the Registers at their place of sitting, I went, Captain Chilton appeared as a witness against me, and testified that I was considered one of the Democratic party, but knew of nothing else; Mr. Conner, one of the Registers, between my two appearances before them, asked me how I was going to vote, I told him I had always been a Democrat and I had understood that my party were not going to bring out any candidates, he then asked me if I