

the Judges; and I voted; but when I looked on the books of Registration I found I was entered disloyal, by public repute.

3rd and 4th. Waived.

Cross-examination:

Q. Will you from your own personal knowledge, swear that the officers of Registration in the discharge of their official duties, did act contrary to the constitution and laws of Maryland, or that they registered any person whom they had reason to believe was a loyal man, as a voter, or that they disqualified any person except upon the evidence of witnesses, conduct, and answers of the applicant, or facts and declarations within their personal observation or hearing, which, in the exercise of their judgment was sufficient to disqualify them? (Claimant objects to this question.)

A. I don't know what the law is, and therefore I don't know whether they acted according to law or not; I thought I had come up to the requirements of the law, but my name was not put in the 8th column.

The above has been read to me and is correct.

JAMES J. MOORE.

Attested to and written by Henry Page, Clerk.

John S. Lankford, a witness produced on behalf of claimant, being duly sworn, answers and says, to special interrogatories filed this day.

To the first interrogatory:

A. 37 years; been a voter 16 years; resided in 1865 in district No. 8.

2nd.

A. I did apply; took the oath; no charge; no witnesses; the Registers asked me only three questions, which I answered, and they then said they had done with me; the first question was, "If I voted for Daniel M. Henry?" I answered "I did not;" his second question was, "If I ever rejoiced at any Southern victory?" I said, "I rejoice at the death of no man;" the third was, "if I ever sympathized with the
