

To the jury re-direct int. filed:

A. I don't know that I ever did.

The above has been read to me and is correct.

J. J. MATTHEWS.

Written and attested to by H. Page, Clerk.

Samuel S. Costen, a witness produced on behalf of claimant, being duly sworn, answers and says:

To the first interrogatory:

A. Fifty-six years, been a voter thirty-five years, resided in 1865 in District No. 8.

2d.

A. Did apply; took the oath; they (the Registers) asked me first, who I voted for in 1861, Henry or Crisfield? I told them, for Henry. Next, if I was to see the two armies in array, which I would wish to be victorious? I said I did not care which. Then, if I was in favor of breaking up the Government? I said no; that I wanted the Union to stand as it had been. And these, as I recollect, were all the questions they asked me. No charge; no witness, as I knew of; I have since examined the books, and find Peter McDaniel and James Dryden were summoned to testify to my disloyalty. I asked them, and they said they did't testify anything against my loyalty.

3d.

A. Did vote, and for Franklin, though I was not registered.

4th. Waived.

Cross-examination.

1st, 2d and 3d. Waived.

4th.

A. I don't know that I have.

5th.

A. I decline to answer.
