

6th. Waived.

The above has been read to me, and is correct.

SAMUEL S. COSTEN.

Written and attested to by Henry Page, Clerk.

Kellum Broughton, a witness produced on behalf of claimant, being duly sworn, answers and says :

To the first interrogatory :

A. Forty-three years; been a voter twenty-two years; resided in 1865 in No. 6 District.

2d.

A. Did apply ; took the oath ; no charge ; no witnesses ; answered all their questions.

3d.

3d. Did not vote, because I was not registered ; would have voted for Franklin.

4th. Waived.

Special interrogatories :

By looking over the books of Registration, it appears that you are entered as "disloyal" by "your own confession." Did you or not, when before the Registers, admit that you were disloyal, either in heart or act to the United States Government.

A. I did not.

Have you ever by open act or deed declared your adhesion to those who were in armed rebellion against the United States, or expressed a desire for their triumph.

A. No, sir, I never did.

Cross-examination.

To the first interrogatory :

A. No, sir; I have no recollection of expressing myself in any shape or form.
