

sixty-four, at Dublin, the place appointed by law for holding the election within said District, and did then and there appoint T. F. Bonneville and Whittington Polk, Clerks of the Election, who severally qualified as directed by law: we further certify that we did then and there before T. F. Bonneville, a Justice of the Peace of said County, qualify as Judges of the Election as by law directed, and then and there, at the hour of eight o'clock in the morning, open the polls for an election for the purpose of expressing the sense of the people upon the adoption or rejection of the New Constitution and form of Government for the State of Maryland; that we continued the polls open until five o'clock in the evening of the same day, when we adjourned until eight A. M., of the next day; that we again opened the polls at eight o'clock on the morning of the next day and continued them open until five o'clock in the evening of the same day, when they were closed, the ballot box opened, and the ballots publicly counted, when it appeared that "Against the Constitution" there were one hundred and thirty-four votes, and "For the Constitution" there were eight votes.
