

Extract from the Poll Books returned by the Judges of Election of the Tenth Election District of Somerset county, at the Election held on the twelfth and thirteenth of October, A. D., 1864.

STATE OF MARYLAND, Somerset County, to wit:

We the undersigned duly appointed by the Commissioners of said county, in due form of law Judges of Election in District No. Ten, do certify and return, that we attended on the twelfth and thirteenth days of October, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, at the Witch Bridge, the place appointed by law for holding the election within said district, and did then and there appoint Soren Barbon and Charles R. Ross, Clerks of the election, who severally qualified as directed by law. We further certify, that we did then and there, before a Justice of the Peace of said county, qualify as Judges of Election as by law directed, and then and there at the hour of eight o'clock in the morning, open the Polls for an election for the purpose of expressing the sense of the people upon the adoption or rejection of the New Constitution and form of Government for the State of Maryland, that we continued the polls open until five o'clock in the evening of the same day when we adjourned until eight o'clock, A. M., of the next day; that we again opened the polls, on the morning of the next day, at eight o'clock, and continued them open until five o'clock in the evening of the same day, when they were closed, the ballot box opened and the ballots publicly counted, when it appeared that "For the Constitution," had eight votes, and "Against the Constitution," had seventy-four votes.

And we the undersigned, Judges of Election do hereby certify that we administered to every voter who polled at this election, the oath required by the New Constitution, to be administered to the voters.
