

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

We have received the following for the benefit of the children. The kind donors receive our warmest thanks:

From the publishers of the "American," the gratuitous supply of their paper, daily ;

From Mrs. Isabella Brown, twenty dollars for purchasing fire works for Fourth of July ;

From Dr. J. J. Cohen, 1 bbl. of cakes for the children, for twenty-second of February ;

From the Sabbath School Teachers, a regular supply of 350 copies of the "Child's World ;"

From the publishers of the "Lutheran Observer," the gratuitous supply of their weekly paper ;

From George Small, Esq., 6 bushels of shellbarks for the children ;

From H. W. Drakeley, Esq., 200 lbs. of poultry for Christmas, and 401 boxes of figs for New Year ;

From Maryland Bible Society, a regular supply of Bibles for the Institution.

I desire to express my acknowledgments to the Board of Managers and my associates for their kind co-operation and aid in conducting the affairs of the Institution.

Respectfully submitted,

W. R. LINCOLN,
Superintendent.
