

the citizens of the State, who in all difficulties of State or National danger should be looked to as the pride and bulwark of a free government, your committee pray that said bill will ont pass.

Respectfully submitted.

C. BILLINGSLEY.