

Also, a petition from William G. Nicholson and two hundred and eighteen other citizens of Caroline county, against the passage of an act to prohibit the sale of spirituous liquors in Denton, the county town of said county;

Which was read and referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Cronise presented a petition from one hundred citizens of Washington county, in favor of remuneration for losses sustained by the rebellion;

Which was read and referred to the committee on Claims.

Mr. Poteet presented a petition of two hundred citizens of Baltimore county, praying for an act equalizing bounties paid to soldiers;

Which was read and referred to the committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Pennington presented a petition from citizens of Cecil county in relation to the right of franchise of George W. B Taylor;

Which was read and referred to the committee on Registration.

Mr. Hynes presented a memorial from one hundred and seventy-five citizens of Baltimore and Locust Point asking the passage of an Act to amend the Ferry Law;

Which was read and referred to the committee on Corporations.

Mr. Cook presented a memorial from John A. Thompson, asking compensation for services rendered;

Which was read and referred to the committee on Claims.

Mr. Smith, of Frederick, presented a memorial from fifty citizens of Frederick county, against prohibiting the sale of spirituous liquors in $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles of jJamsville, Frederick county;

Which was read and referred to the Frederick county delegation.

Mr. Miller, of Washington, presented a uemorial from Lewis P. Fiery, George Mish and one hundred and sixteen other citizens of Washington county, asking an amendment of the Code of Public General Laws, making the cutting of timber a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the Penitentiary;

Which was read and referred to the committee on the Judiciary.