So the amendment was rejected.

Mr. Fawcett submitted the following amendment:

Strike out all after the word "that," in first line, down to "Baltimore," in the fourth line, and insert, "The county commissioners of each county and the city council of Baltimore, shall pay such sum to the assessors as in their judgment may be a sufficient compensation for their services."

Mr. Buhrman called the previous question.

The question being, "Shall the main question be now put?"

It was decided in the affirmative.

The question recurring upon the adoption of the amendment;

Mr. Jamison demanded the yeas and nays.

The demand being sustained;

The yeas and nays were called and appeared as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE.
