

the people of the whole country ; that the General Assembly has abiding confidence in the matured ability and wise statesmanship of the Hon. W. H. Seward, to maintain our foreign relations with firmness and judgment, and without compromise of the national honor, and that the General Assembly awaits the developments of the future in the firm persuasion that sooner or later no foreign potentate or power, in the interest of monarchical governments, will be permitted to retain a permanent footing on this continent.

Resolved, That a joint committee of the two branches of this General Assembly be appointed to present a copy of these resolutions to His Excellency, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, and the Hon. Wm. H. Seward, Secretary of State.

Mr. Cronise called the previous question ;

The question being “shall the main question be now put?”
