Comptroller of the Treasury.ROBERT P. GRAHAM, of Salisbury, Wicomico County.

Robert P. Graham, Comptroller, is the son of Col. S. A. Graham, well known for many years in Eastern Shore political circles. He was born in Salisbury, April 7th, 1867, and is, therefore, in his twenty-ninth year. Mr. Graham received his early education in the excellent public schools of Salisbury, and later passed through the Johns Hopkins University with credit. In 1888, Mr. Graham was graduated from the Maryland University School of Law, and at once began the practice of his profession in Salisbury. His practice in the courts of the lower Eastern Shore counties is extensive, and he has been successfully engaged in some important cases.

Mr. Graham has held no public office, but has been actively identified with the Republican party.

Attorney-General.HARRY M. CLABAUGH, of Westminster, Carroll County.

Harry M. Clabaugh, who was chosen in November, 1895, as Attorney-General, though not yet forty years of age, is well known in all parts of Maryland. He has gained a name for himself at the bar and in politics, and has been active in State and county affairs almost from boyhood. He was born at Cumberland, July 16th, 1856, and lived there until 1862, when his father, the late G. W. Clabaugh, moved his family to Baltimore city, and then, in 1873, to Carroll county.

Mr. Clabaugh was sent to the Pennsylvania College, at Gettysburg, and graduated from there in 1877. In the following year he graduated in law from the University of Maryland, having taken the two-year course in a year. He read law with Mr. Bernard Carter, in Baltimore city, and entered upon the practice of his profession in Baltimore, but on the death of his father in 1880, he removed to Carroll county, where he has since lived a lawyer and a farmer, on one of the handsomest estates in the commonwealth.
