

chapter 261, and by the current Legislature. (Acts of 1882, chapter 261.)

The laws of each General Assembly that are made to take effect before the first day of June next, after the session at which it may be passed, which the Governor and Attorney General shall direct, shall immediately after its passage be published at the expense of the State for one week in three daily newspapers in the city of Baltimore, one of which shall be in the German language, one of which shall be a law paper, and such newspaper or newspapers in each county as the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Delegates may direct. (Acts of 1882, chapter 251. Chapter 15, Acts of 1894.)

A certified copy of Public Local Laws, made to take effect as above, shall be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate, if the same shall have originated in the Senate, and by the Chief Clerk of the House, if the same shall have originated in the House, immediately upon its passage, to the County Commissioners of the county or counties, in which the same may operate, or to the Mayor of the city of Baltimore, if the same is to operate in that city; and it shall be the duty of the said County Commissioners and Mayor upon receipt of such certified copy to have the same published. (Acts of 1870, chapter 274.)

Certified copies of the Public General Laws are to be sent to the newspapers selected to publish the same by the Secretary of the Senate and Chief Clerk of the House, as the laws originate in their respective chambers. (Acts 1882, chapter 251, section 1.)

Dorchester, Somerset, Washington, Wicomico and Worcester counties are exempted from publishing their local laws. (Acts 1872, chapter 410, Acts 1870, chapters 105 and 174.)

Cancelled Bonds. The Finance Committee of the Senate and the Committee on Ways and Means of the House, are required, during each session of the Legislature, to examine, count and burn all bonds and certificates of stock as have been purchased or obtained, up to the close of the fiscal year, next preceding the session, which have been purchased by the Comptroller and Treasurer for the Sinking Fund, and shall report to the Legislature their proceedings. (Acts 1862, chapter 112.)

All contested elections for Comptroller of the Treasury,
