

Worcester, Somerset and Dorchester shall constitute the first circuit; the counties of Caroline, Talbot, Queen Anne's, Kent and Cecil the second; the counties of Baltimore and Harford the third; the counties of Allegany and Washington the fourth; the counties of Carroll, Howard and Anne Arundel the fifth; the counties of Montgomery and Frederick the sixth; the counties of Prince George's, Charles, Calvert and St. Mary's the seventh, and Baltimore city the eighth. (Garrett created in 1872, belongs to the fourth district.)

A COURT IN EACH COUNTY—JURISDICTION.

SEC. 20. A court shall be held in each county of the State to be styled the Circuit Court for the county in which it may be held. The said Circuit Courts shall have and exercise, in the respective counties, all the power, authority and jurisdiction, original and appellate, which the present Circuit Courts of this State now have and exercise, or which may hereafter be prescribed by law.

CHIEF JUDGE AND TWO ASSOCIATES.

SEC. 21. For each of the said circuits, (excepting the eighth), there shall be a chief judge and two associate judges, to be styled judges of the circuit court, to be elected or appointed, as herein provided. And no two of said associate judges shall, at the time of their election or appointment, or during the term for which they may have been elected or appointed, reside in the same county. If two or more persons shall be candidates for associate judge, in the same county, that one only in said county shall be declared elected who has the highest number of votes in the circuit. In case any two candidates for associate judge, residing in the same county, shall have an equal number of votes, greater than any other candidate for associate judge, in the circuit, it shall be the duty of the Governor to order a new election for one associate judge; but the person residing in any other county of the circuit and who has the next highest number of votes shall be declared elected. The said judges shall hold not less than two terms of the circuit court in each of the counties composing their respective circuits, at such times as are now, or may hereafter, be prescribed, to which jurors shall be summoned; and in those counties where only two such terms are held, two other and intermediate terms, to which jurors shall not be summoned; they may alter or fix the times for holding any or all terms until
