

Annapolis, and give their votes for President and Vice-President of the United States, at the hour of noon upon the first Wednesday in December, in the year in which they are appointed. (Secs. 136, 140, 141, Act of 1896, chapter 202.)

Register of Voters.—See Judges and Clerks of Election.

Secretary of State.—See page 93.

State Reporter.—See page 111.

Senators of the United States.—See page 106.

Pilots.—All masters of foreign vessels and vessels from a foreign port, and all vessels sailing under register, bound to and from Baltimore city, except vessels employed in and licensed for the coasting trade, and American vessels laden either in whole or in part with coke or coal mined in the United States, shall take a licensed pilot. (Chapter 40, Act of 1896.)

Representatives in Congress.—Shall be elected on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, in every second year succeeding the year 1896. (Sec. 142, Act of 1896, ch. 202.)

The Governor shall issue proclamation for the people to fill vacancies. (Sec. 143, Act of 1896, ch. 202.)

Public Printer.—The clerk of the Court of Appeals advertises for bids to do the printing of the General Assembly. The successful bidder is the public printer. He gives a bond of $30,000. The printing necessary for the General Assembly must be delivered during the session. Residue to be delivered to the State Librarian after the session. (Article 78 of the Code.)

Register of Wills.—Elected by the people; term, six years; eligible for re-election; subject to removal for neglect or misdemeanor; vacancy in office filled by Orphan's Court until next general election for delegates to the Legislature; register has custody of wills; he must safely keep wills of living persons; bond, $7,000; must be renewed every second year and copy sent to the Governor; the register must act as the clerk to the Orphan's Court, and as any clerk of a court of law; he must attend his office daily; must file and record papers. He is to receive inventories and accounts of sale in recess of Orphan's Court; he may take probate of accounts; may pass accounts not exceeding the sum of fifty dollars; must keep a record of claims passed; may take probate of wills