

ditional compensation; ad interim appointment to be made by the court; he shall enter judgments for State satisfied, when the same is satisfied by the sureties, to their use; he shall appear in bills of chancery where there are no heirs; he shall bring suit on defaulting collectors' bonds when ordered by the Comptroller; he shall receive commissions for services in such cases; he may order attachment on judgment against debtors to the State; he may buy in real estate, but at no more than the State's demand, sold at the suit of the State; may lease, sell and convey property so bought. (Articles 10, 8, 16, 81 and 33 of the Code.)

State Vaccine Agent.—Appointed by the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Senate; must be a physician in good standing; must procure good vaccine virus; must furnish it gratuitously to the physicians of the State; salary, $600; bond to the State of $3,000, to be approved by the Comptroller; appointment under the fifty-day rule. (Article 43, sections 26-34 of the Code.)

Superintendent of Public Buildings.—Shall keep and guard the public grounds in Annapolis, and the movable property therein; salary, $1,000, bond, $1,000; an assistant, to take charge of the Governor's mansion and premises; salary, $600; one watchman of public buildings at night, salary, $600; one watchman and policeman under the direction of the superintendent for such duties as he may direct, salary $600; a keeper of the steam house, salary $600; one assistant keeper, salary $600. The Superintendent shall keep an inventory of the movable property of the State in the public buildings at Annapolis, and file a copy with the Secretary of State; he shall have actual charge of the grounds and buildings, and all persons, laborers, temporarily, otherwise, or permanently employed in and about the State House, as his assistants, shall be under the supervision of the Superintendent of Public Buildings. (Article 41, sections 18, 22, Code.)

State Librarian.—Appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate for four years, and until successor shall be appointed and qualify. Salary $1,500; appointed under the fifty-day rule. (Article 7, section 3.) His bond is such as the committee of the Senate and House of Delegates on Library may approve. The Governor fills vacancy in the office; the State Libra-