

Constitution, shall be made to the Governor, except State's Attorneys, and he shall issue commissions of all officers elected, under Constitution, except State's Attorneys. (Article IV, section 11, Constitution.)

In case of a tie the Governor shall order a new election for judges, clerks of courts, and registers of wills. In contested elections he must send returns to the House. (Article 4, section 12, Constitution.)

Vacancies in the Orphans' Courts, offices of justices of the peace and sheriff, shall be filled by the Governor, subject to the confirmation or rejection by the Senate. (Article IV, sections 40, 43, 44, Constitution.)

Elections for Attorney-General shall be certified to the Governor, who shall decide questions of election and qualification, and in case of tie, shall designate which shall qualify, and he shall fill all vacancies in said office. (Article V, sections 2 and 5, Constitution.)

Vacancies in the offices of Treasurer and Comptroller shall be filled by the Governor, by and with the advice of the Senate. (Article VI, section 1, Constitution.)

The approval of the Governor has to be obtained of the banks selected by the treasurer in which to keep the State funds, and the banks must give such security as the Governor may require. (Article VI, section 3, Constitution.)

The Board of Public Works is composed of the Governor, Treasurer, and Comptroller. (Article XII, section 1, Constitution.)

Proposed amendments to the Constitution are to be published by the Governor, and on their adoption he is to so declare by proclamation. (Article XIV, section 1, Constitution.)

The office of any officer who shall fail to pay into the State treasury within thirty days of the expiration of each year, excess of fees and money due him, shall be declared vacant by the Governor. (Article XV, section 1, Constitution.)

In cases of tie in election of State officers, except those otherwise provided for, the Governor shall issue certificates for a new election. (Article XV, section 4, Constitution.)

Officers elected or appointed, under the Constitution, may qualify before the Governor or any clerk of any court of records. (Article XV, section 10, Constitution.)