Attorney General: ISIDOR RAYNER (Democrat), of Baltimore City.

Mr. Isidor Rayner was born in Baltimore fifty-four years ago. He graduated from the University of Virginia in 1870, and then studied law. Soon after his admission to the bar he attracted public attention by his ability as a lawyer and an advocate. In 1878 he was elected to the Maryland House of Delegates. In 1886 he was elected to the State Senate. In that body his course was so brilliant that in 1888 he was nominated for and elected to Congress from the Fourth District. His record there was a splendid one, and he was returned in 1890 and 1892. He was, while in Congress, a member of Committees on Foreign Relations and on Coinage and Currency, and took a most prominent position before the country in the important debates upon the floor. Mr. Rayner is known to the general masses of the people by his powers as a public speaker, always commanding attention, whether in court or on the hustings. He has taken a leading part for his party in the State and the country in all political discussions of the times.
