Captain William Baird, U. S. A. retired, designated by the War Department at the request of the Governor of the State, for duty in connection with the State Militia.

The Adjutant General is appointed by the Governor, with the consent of the Senate, for the same term as that of the appointing Governor. (Constitution, Art. 9, Sec. 2.) The designation of an officer of the United States Army, for duty in connection with the State Militia, is made by the War Department under an Act of Congress providing that any State having a regularly organized militia conforming to the Act of Congress, may, through its Governor, request the designation.

The other officers of the Adjutant General's Office are appointed by the Adjutant General.
