

tor Perkins received his early education in the public schools and Washington College, in his native town. He came to Baltimore in 1891, and entered the law office of Messrs. Hinkley & Morris as a student, and finished his legal education at the Maryland University, graduating in 1894.

Mr. Perkins was Secretary to the Ways and Means Committee of the General Assembly of 1900, which is the only office of political character he has ever occupied. Prior to his election to the State Senate he was for five years referee in bankruptcy of the United States District Court for the District of Maryland. He is married, and resides on the Reisterstown road.

Baltimore City (Third District)—J. CHARLES LINTHICUM, Democrat—314 St. Paul Street.

Mr. Linthicum was born at Linthicum, Anne Arundel County, November 26, 1867, and received his early education in the public schools of that county and of Baltimore City, later entering the State Normal School from which he graduated in 1886, when he became principal of Braddock School, Frederick County, and later taught school in his native county of Anne Arundel. Returning to Baltimore he took a special course in the Historical and Political Department of the Johns Hopkins University, after which he entered the University of Maryland, School of Law, from which he obtained his degree of L.L.B. in 1890. He has since practiced law in the City of Baltimore—some years ago having associated with himself his brother, Seth Hance Linthicum, under the firm name of J. Chas. Linthicum & Bro. He is also a professor of Medical Jurisprudence of the Maryland Medical College of Baltimore, which conferred upon him the honorary degree of M.D.

In 1903 he was elected to the House of Delegates from the Third Legislative District of Baltimore City. During the session of 1904 he was chairman of the City Delegation, chairman of the Elections Committee, a member of the Judiciary Committee and of the Printing Committee and performed valuable service for the State and city during that session of the Legislature.

In 1905 Mr. Linthicum was nominated to the State Senate from his district after one of the most spirited Primary Elections ever held in the City of Baltimore, and was duly elected to the State Senate in the Election of November of that year.

Mr. Linthicum has always been a democrat and taken great interest in party affairs and especially in the welfare and prosperity of his city. He is married, his wife being formerly Mrs. Gabriel D. Clark, neé Perry, a daughter of the late Dr. John L. Perry of Saratoga Springs, New York.
