

1901. The following fall he was elected to the House of Delegates, leading the legislative part of the ticket, serving with credit to his county during the session of 1902. In the spring of that year he established the Caroline Sun at Ridgely, Md., which is one of the most progressive journals in the county to-day. The following fall he settled in Greensboro and has since been successfully practicing his profession there. In the spring of 1903 he was elected president of the Board of Town Commissioners of Greensboro, of which body he is still a member. The doctor has always taken an active interest in public affairs, having served as a delegate in several county and Congressional conventions, and the State Convention which nominated the Hon. Edwin Warfield for Governor. He was the only successful candidate on the Democratic ticket at the late election, having defeated Henry Clay Hobbs for the Senate. He is a Master Mason and a member of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Cecil County—JOSEPH I. FRANCE, Republican—Port Deposit.

Dr. Joseph I. France is descended, on his father's side, from an old Maryland family, his father's ancestors having settled in this State before the Revolutionary War. His mother was the daughter of Col. William James, of Richmond, Va. His father spent his early boyhood in Washington, and was there educated. He later entered the Presbyterian ministry, and occupied important churches in New York State, where the subject of the present sketch spent his early youth. Dr. France graduated from Hamilton College, in New York State, and then went abroad for scientific study. He returned to this
