

Frederick County—DAVID M. DEVILBLISS, Republican—Woodville.

Dr. Devilbliss was born near Libertytown, April 3, 1845, on a farm, and until he was twenty-five followed farming as a vocation. He then studied medicine, graduating from the University of Maryland in the class of 1872, and is now engaged in the active practice of his profession. He was Health Officer of the county for several years, and was elected to the Senate in 1903.

Garrett County—W. McCULLOH BROWN, Republican—Fort Pendleton.

W. McCulloh Brown was born in New York City in 1854. His ancestors were among the earliest settlers of Connecticut. Mr. Brown's school days were spent at Andover, Mass., and he was graduated from Philips Academy in 1872, going from there to Yale University, where he graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy in 1876. While at college he took a course in chemistry, and later was in the laboratory of a sugar refinery in Boston.

In 1881 he moved to Garrett County, locating near Fort Pendleton upon property owned by the family, and has resided there ever since. In addition to the interest of a farm, Mr. Brown has found constant employment as surveyor and engineer. In the summer of 1897 he was appointed engineer on behalf of Maryland upon the survey of the western boundary of the State in the suit now pending in the United States Supreme Court vs. West Virginia. During the summer of 1900 he was with the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, working in the West. His interests are thoroughly identified with the farm. He has taken a lively interest in the Farmers' Institute work of the State, and is one of the vice-presidents of the Maryland Horticultural Society. He belongs to no orders, but is a member of the Yale Alumni Association of Maryland, and a non-resident member of the University Club of Baltimore. He has always been interested in politics, but has never before sought or held any public office.
