

Senator Shannon resides in Frostburg, where the Republican majority runs all the way from 500 to 800, and yet he carried it by 353, showing that from four to five hundred Republicans esteemed him so highly that they abandoned their own party candidate to vote for him. No greater compliment could have been paid him than this almost unanimous endorsement of his neighbors. To those who know the Senator, however, this was not considered remarkable. No man possesses to a greater degree the faculty of making friends.

He served as Register of Wills for six years in an acceptable manner to the people of Allegany, and at the expiration of his term was nominated and elected to the Senate of Maryland. At this election he was again the sole successful Democratic nominee. His services in the Senate are well known and appreciated by the citizens of the entire State. He was on very many of the important committees and no member was held in higher esteem by his fellow members. While on all party matters he could be relied on to protect the interests of his party he was too broadminded to neglect the interests of the State at large. He was instrumental in having much good legislation in the interests of his constituents. Senator Shannon has frequently been named as an available candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from the Sixth District.
