Charles County—S. SPEARMAN LANCASTER, Republican—Rock Point.

Mr. Lancaster was born at the old Lancaster homestead, Rock Hall, on the Wicomico, in Charles County, in 1859. Owing to the death of his father when Mr. Lancaster was a boy, he became his mother's business manager at an early age, and received most of his educational instruction under her guidance, reading a great variety of instructive literature during spare hours.

By patient industry and strict attention to business he has acquired one of the best paying properties in Charles County, there being a population of over 235 on his estates. Was an active Democrat until 1893, when he, with many others, went over to the Republican party.

Was a member of the House of Delegates in 1900. In 1885 he married a daughter of the late Judge John L. Jenkins, of Adams County, Pennsylvania, and has a family of eight children.

Dorchester County—JOSEPH B. ANDREWS, Republican—Hurlock.

Mr. Andrews is the son of the late Stephen Andrews, a prosperous farmer of Dorchester County, well known and highly respected. He is fifty-five years of age, and has engaged in farming and pursuits incidental to farming during his entire lifetime. Received his education in the public schools. Employs a great number of hands in his extensive canning factory.

Mr. Andrews has held office in his native town as Town Commissioner and has been one of the School Trustees for his county. Was elected a County School Commissioner for Dorchester County and a member of the House of Delegates. Is a member of the M. E. Church and connected with all religious, charitable and business movements of Hurlock. In 1881 he married Mary, daughter of the late J. W. B. Todd, who died in 1896, leaving seven children. In 1900 he remarried, his second wife being Elgin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Gore.

Mr. Andrews is a man of good judgment whose views on business affairs are sought by his neighbors and friends and is an indefatigable worker.
