

TALBOT COUNTY—Three Members.

WILLIAM J. JACKSON, Democrat—Tilghman.

Mr. William J. Jackson was born in Talbot county, November 27, 1854. He taught in the public schools for 10 years, but is now engaged in the drug business at Tilghman, Md. He was a Justice of the Peace for a number of years, having been appointed by Governor Hamilton; resigned that office, and was Tax Collector in 1890 and 1891; was again appointed Justice of the Peace by Governor Smith in 1900, and in the fall of 1903 he was elected a member of the House of Delegates and served on important committees.

J. EDWARD MORTIMER, Democrat—Neavitt.

Mr. J. Edward Mortimer is a prominent farmer in Broad Creek Neck, St. Michael's district, where he moved from Baltimore when a small boy. He never held an elective office, but was appointed Oyster Inspector at the port of St. Michael's by Governor Brown, and filled this position with signal credit, giving perfect satisfaction to every one. He is a son of the late John Mortimer, who was at one time engaged in the wholesale lumber business in Baltimore, and a brother of ex-Sheriff A. C. Mortimer. Mr. Mortimer has always taken an active interest in Democratic affairs, having represented his county in State and Congressional conventions. He is prominent in church work; member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which he is trustee and steward. He is also a fraternal order man, being a member of the Knights of Pythias, the Junior Order United American Mechanics, and the Funeral Aid Society.

GEORGE C. MOORE, Democrat—Queen Anne.

Mr. Moore was born in Greensboro, Caroline county, Md., where he attended the public schools until his eighteenth year, under Professor James Carroll, who is now Superintendent of Public Schools of Kent county, Del. At the age of 18 he entered the Wilmington Conference Academy, completing his education at that institution in three years, and is at present and has been for several years past a trustee of the same. After reaching 21 he located on the tract of land belonging to his father, near Queen Anne, known as "Moorleigh," and engaged in farming and milling, and occasionally speculating in real estate. He has held several positions of trust. For several years he was a director in the People's National Bank, Denton. For four
