

EMERGENCY HOSPITAL.

The ground on which this hospital stands was acquired in 1902 from Edwin A. Seidewitz at a cost of $3,500, and has been improved by buildings erected thereon at a cost of $10,000, making a total cost of $13,500. This hospital occupies a lot about 149 feet by 135 feet.

STEAM HEATING PLANT.

The ground on which this plant stands is located at Annapolis, and occupies a space about 100 feet by 95 feet. It was acquired in 1902 from Mary B. Hughes at a cost of $5,500. The cost of the plant located thereon was $150,000, making the total cost of the property $155,500.

COURT OF APPEALS BUILDING.

The land on which this building stands is in Annapolis, and was acquired in 1900 by several deeds. One from the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the city of Annapolis; one from Fanny M. Oliver and husband; and another from Annie E. Pumphreys et al. The total cost of the land was $30,500, and the building thereon, in which are located the Court of Appeals, the Public Library, and all the financial departments of the State, cost the sum of $245,000, making a total cost of $275,000.

TROOP A ARMORY.

This property, located at Pikesville, was acquired in 1902, 1903 and 1905 by four separate deeds, making an area of 13 78-100 acres, more or less. This land was acquired from Wilson Carey McHenry et al., executors; Harry E. Goertz and Annie E. Kehoe at a cost of $10,540. It is improved by an armory and barracks, the cost of which was $50,000.

NORMAL SCHOOL.

This school is located in Baltimore city, at the corner of Lafayette and Carrollton avenues, and occupies a space of 120 feet by 71 feet. It was acquired from Oliver F. Lantz, and cost at the time of purchase $10,000. The buildings thereon have cost $140,000, making a total cost of $150,000.

NORMAL SCHOOL NO. 2.

This school is located in Frostburg, Allegany county, and occupies land containing 3 acres, more or less, and cost $2,250. The buildings thereon cost the State $20,000, mak-