

for 1914. This is a purely educational institution, providing for the deaf and dumb children of the State, or, more exactly, for the deaf children of the State. The term deaf and dumb covers one class and does not include those who are speechless though able to hear. Pupils are admitted on application to the Principal, Charles W. Ely, Frederick, Md. Blank forms of application are furnished by him. The age limit is six to twenty-one years. Exceptions to this rule may be made by the Board of Visitors. Board, instruction and care are provided without charge to residents of the State. Pupils from other States are charged $150.00 per annum. Proper medical care is given, but deafness is not treated. Pupils are received for school and industrial instruction and not for medical care.

F. Knapp English and German Institute for Indigent Mutes, 851 Hollins Street, Baltimore—Receives from State $1,200 for 1913 and $1,200 for 1914. It is required to maintain twelve free scholarships for training and education of indigent mutes, and to furnish them with textbooks, "appliances and so forth," and to train and educate them. Apply to F. Knapp, Principal, 851 and 853 Hollins Street, Baltimore.

Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Maryland—Receives from State $25,000 for 1913 and $25,000 for 1914. No State scholarships are awarded in this institution, but the university has, since its foundation, offered a large number of free scholarships to students from Maryland, and in addition, Marylanders can compete for twenty University scholarships and twenty fellowships. There are also five "Woodyear" scholarships open to undergraduates. Apply to T. R. Ball, Registrar, $600,000 for School of Technology.

McDonough Institute, LaPlata, Maryland—Receives from State $4,000 for 1913 and $4,000 for 1914, for which the institution maintains twenty free scholarships to students of Charles county, who are appointed by the School Commissioners of the county with the approval of the Senator of the county.

Maryland Institute for the Promotion of Mechanics' Arts, Mount Royal Avenue and Lanvale Street, Baltimore—Receives from State $15,000 for 1913 and $15,000 for 1914. Furnishes one free scholar to be received from each county of the State and one from each legislative district of Baltimore city, to be selected by the School Commissioners of the counties and Baltimore city, respectively, upon the approval of the State Senator of each county and the legislative districts of Baltimore city. As each scholarship is for the period of four years the number of pupils always in the schools under the contract is 108. We have a similar contract with the city of Baltimore for the education of free pupils. Other pupils pay the tuition fees required in the different classes, varying in the day school according to the course pursued, but in the night schools the standard fee is six dollars for the term or six months in the mechanical, architectural and free-hand classes alike. For detailed information, address John M. Carter, President, at address given above.

Maryland School for the Blind (For White Scholars), 220 East North Avenue, Baltimore—This institution receives annually $21,000, for which it admits indigent blind persons of the age of seven years and upwards, inhabitants of Maryland and of the county or city from which recommended by the County Commissioners of the county or by the judges of the Orphans' Court of Baltimore city, if the applicant be a resident of that city. These applications are made to the Governor, who, after examination to ascertain whether or not the provisions of the law have been complied with and that the applicant is worthy to be a State beneficiary, issues his warrant of admission specifying therein the term for which the applicant is admitted.
