Governor, with consent of Senate, appoints ten biennially in the month of January, all of whom shall be residents of the counties. (Bagby Code, Art. 27, Sec. 593.)

This institution is for the care, reformation and instruction of such girls, under the age of 18 years, as need the care of some public reformatory institution.

The Juvenile Court commits girls under 16 years of age, and the various magistrates of the city, and throughout the State, those between 16 and 18 years of age.

The institution is managed by a Board of thirty Directors, ten representing the State, appointed bi-ennially by the Governor; five representing the city, appointed annually by the Mayor, and fifteen representing the subscribers, appointed annually at the annual meeting of the subscribers.
