

Upon his graduation, Mr. Ritchie began the practice of law in Baltimore City with the firm of Steele, Semmes, Carey and Bond, of which he became a member in 1900. In March, 1903, he was appointed Assistant City Solicitor of Baltimore City, and held this position until July 1, 1910, when he resigned in order to become Assistant General Counsel to the Public Service Commission of Maryland. He held that position until February 16, 1913, when he resigned in order to devote his entire time to private practice.

Previous to this, in November, 1903, Mr. Ritchie formed the law firm of Ritchie and Janney, which, in April, 1913, became Ritchie, Janney & Griswold. Mr. Ritchie is still the head of this firm. In 1907 he was appointed Professor of Law at the University of Maryland Law School, a position which he still holds.

On September 14, 1915, Mr. Ritchie was nominated in the direct primary for Attorney General of Maryland on the Democratic ticket, and on November 2nd, 1915, he was elected to that office.
