Governor appoints two annually in the month of February. (Bagby Code, Art. 27, Sec. 553.)

The General Assembly appropriated for maintenance for the years 1915 and 1916 fifteen thousand dollars each. The inmates are all colored boys between the ages of ten and twenty-one years. Each boy is required to attend school one-half of each day and be engaged in some industrial work the other half. Various industries are taught, the principal one being farming. The larger boys are carefully trained in practical farming. All the work of the farm of 1250 acres is done by the boys under a head farmer and an assistant, the other industries in which the boys are trained are tailoring, shoemaking, carpentry, painting, laundering, baking, blacksmithing and broom making, others are taught to be waiters. All the clothing and shoes worn by the boys, except the military caps, are made by them.

The boys are committed by the courts and magistrates of the State and City of Baltimore. Those coming from Baltimore are committed mostly by the Juvenile Court. All commitments are during minority, but are really indeterminate, as, by a parole system, a boy may earn his parole in two years after he enters the institution.
