

The Governor appoints nine members of the Board, five of whom shall be women, three for 2 years, three for 4 years, and three for 6 years, and as these terms expire successors are appointed for six years. (Ch. 843, 1914.)

The Board shall always be non-partisan and non-sectarian and the number of women directors thereon shall never be less than five.

The above Board is charged with the duty of securing a site in the country and proceeding with the erection thereon of such buildings as may be necessary, which are to be built under the plan known as the Cottage System, and are for the reception and care of white females under the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been committed to it by any judge or Justice of the Peace of the State. The Commission is authorized to hold such females under such commitments until they shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years, but no girl shall be committed to this institution because she has no home, or because of poverty.

Commission:
Charles D. Wagaman, Chairman.....	1918.....	Hagerstown
James Higgins.....	1916.....	Baltimore
Robert E. Lee.....	1920.....	Baltimore

Governor appoints three, not more than two of whom shall be of the same political faith, one for 6 years, one for 4 years, and one for 2 years, and as these terms expire the successor is appointed for 6 years. The Governor designates the Chairman. (Ch. 800, 1914.)

The State Industrial Accident Commission is charged with the duty of administering the Workmen's Compensation Law. The law provides, first, for the payment of compensation to employees injured in certain extra-hazardous employments, and to their dependents in case of death; second, for all employers in such occupations shall secure the payment of such compensation by insuring their liability in a stock company, or the State Accident Fund, or by proving to the satisfaction of the Commission their financial ability to pay the compensation direct.

The business of the Commission is to administer to the Workmen's Compensation Act and involves determining what occupations are included, receiving reports of accidents, receiving, investigating and adjudicating claims arising under the Act. Hearings are held in contested cases. In addition to these duties, the Commission administers to the State Accident Fund, which is operated by the Act, as one of the methods by which employers must insure.
