

ately after Section 30 of said Article and sub-title, and to be numbered, respectively, Sections 30A and 30B; said Section 30A providing that the name of any voter upon the registration books shall not be stricken therefrom during his absence in the military or naval service of the United States, and said Section 30B providing for the entry, when new general registrations are held, of the names of duly registered voters, absent as above mentioned, upon the new registration books.