The Governor, without the consent of the Senate, appoints a Board of Managers for the above institution consisting of fifteen members as follows: Five for two years, five for four years and five for six years from June 1st, 1918, and as these terms expire successors are appointed for the full term of six years.

Eight of the Board shall be women. (Ch. 303, 1918.)

This Board supersedes the Board of Directors of the Maryland Industrial School for Girls, formerly the Female House of Refuge, and is authorized to exercise all the powers and authority conferred upon that Board by Article 27 of the Code of Public General Laws.

The new Board is authorized by Chapter 303, 1918, to prepare plans for suitable buildings on the cottage system and submit the same to the Governor before October 1, 1919, together with its recommendations for the location of this institution in the country, and is also authorized to take options on property therefor and make the proper arrangements for the sale of the property of the old institution.

This institution is for the care, reformation and instruction of such white girls, under the age of 18 years, as require the care of a public reformatory institution.

The Juvenile Court commits girls under 16 years of age and the Magistrates throughout the State and Baltimore City commits those between the ages of 16 and 18 years.
