The Conservation Commission appoints nine General Measurers and Inspectors of Oysters, and not exceeding twenty Special Inspectors, which later shall hold office during the oyster season only.

It is the duty of the General Measurers and Inspectors of Oysters to see that the laws in reference to the inspection of oysters be strictly complied with by all of the district inspectors, and have authority at all times to enter all places and vessels where oysters are being measured and inspected in the shell and inspect all the measures and instruments used in measuring oysters and see that the inspection laws are strictly enforced and whether or not the measures are correct and if found incorrect to prosecute the offenders.
