

points to fill the vacancy, the term then being six years. The confirmation of the Senate is required for the subsequent appointments. (Ch. 500, 1914.)

The duties of this Board are to thoroughly investigate all applications for pardon and parole and report the result of the same to the Governor of the State. It must take under its supervision for such time as the Governor may direct the inmates of any penal institute of the State who may be paroled by the Governor and keep records showing the actions, earnings, etc., of the said paroles during their time, reporting at once to the Governor, the violation of any of the terms of their parole.

In pursuing their investigations they have power to summons witnesses before them and to examine them on their oath when necessary. They have visitatorial power over every institution to which prisoners, whether adult or minors, are committed that receive aid from the State, city or private sources.
