

Attorney-General: ALEXANDER ARMSTRONG (Republican),
Hagerstown, Md.

Alexander Armstrong was born in Hagerstown, Maryland, on June 28th, 1877. His father was the late Alexander Armstrong, for many years a practicing attorney of Hagerstown, and his mother, who is also deceased, was, before her marriage, Miss Elizabeth Key Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bruce Scott, of Hagerstown. Mr. Armstrong attended the public schools of Washington County, graduating from its High School in 1895. He then entered Princeton University, receiving there the degree of A. B. in 1899, and the degree of A. M., in 1900, and was later graduated from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 1903 with a degree of LL. B. Mr. Armstrong was admitted to the Bar of Maryland on January 13, 1904, and immediately commenced the practice of law in Hagerstown. In April, 1904, he was appointed City Attorney for Hagerstown, serving until July, 1906. In the fall of 1907 he was elected State's Attorney for Washington County, serving one term, from January 1st, 1908, to January 1st, 1912. From that date Mr. Armstrong has devoted his entire time to private practice, his work taking him before the Courts and Commissions of Maryland and also before the Federal Court of Baltimore. The law offices in Hagerstown, with which Mr. Armstrong is still connected, are conducted under the name of Armstrong & Scott. In September, 1919, Mr. Armstrong was nominated by the Republican State Convention for Attorney-General of Maryland and was elected to that office on November 4th, 1919. Mr. Armstrong was married to Miss Mary Rebekah Woods, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hiram Woods of Baltimore City, on January 25, 1911. They have one son, Alexander Armstrong, Jr.

The Adjutant General: MILTON A. RECKORD (Democrat),
Harford County.

Milton A. Reckord, the twenty-second Adjutant General of Maryland, was born in Harford County December 28th, 1879. He is the son of the late John H. and Lydia A. Reckord.

General Reckord's connection with the Maryland National Guard dates from February 15th, 1901, when he enlisted as a private in Company D, 1st Infantry. He served as an enlisted man until December 28th, 1904, when he was commissioned Captain of that company.
