vacancy.

Auditor and Principal, Ignatius Bjorlee, M. A.

Board consists of 30 members. Governor appoints to fill vacancies only. No term. (Ch. 247, 1867, and Ch. 767, 1916.)

All scholarships are free to deaf children of the State.

Deaf Children are so educated as to become self-supporting elements of society. Besides the regular course of study, including high school branches, every boy at graduation has become master of some trade, such as Printing, Cabinet-making, Shoemaking, Tailoring etc., while the girls will have completed a course in Domestic Science and Household Arts.

In connection with speech and lip-reading, vocal exercises, with aid of the piano, are given to encourage the speech habit, develop the vocal organs and to aid in correct enunciation and pitch of voice.

Military training is given to all the boys. The school is strictly nonsectarian. Enrollment, 160 pupils.

State appropriation for the next two years is $63,250.00 for each year.

Address all applications or other communications pertaining to the school to Ignatius Bjorlee, M. A., Superintendent and Principal.

The Maryland Workshop for the Blind, located 601 N. Fulton Ave., Baltimore, was founded by an Act of the Legislature of 1908, Chapter 566.

It is governed by a Board of Directors, three members of which are appointed by the Governor and two by the Board of Directors of the Maryland School for the Blind.

The Board, under the law, is made a body corporate with power to employ a secretary and other necessary employees and fix their compensation.

It has been the custom for the Board to elect a Superintendent and the other employees, including a manager; teachers, janitor, etc., are chosen by the Superintendent, with the approval of the Board of Directors..

Blind men and women are admitted to the workshop for training. It has been customary to pay the men a handicap of $3.00 per week
