

It has exclusive jurisdiction over children under the age of 16 years and the general jurisdiction given by law to the Police Magistrates.

The powers conferred on the Court are very wide and ample for all purposes, being in fact all that the Legislature can grant under the restrictions of the Constitution.

The Court is in session from 10 A. M. each day, Sundays and legal holidays excepted.

The Commission under the State law consists of three members. On the adoption of the Prohibition amendment to the Federal Constitution two of the former commissioners resigned. Joseph Y. Brattan continued in office without pay until the decision of the Court of Appeals was rendered declaring that despite the Constitutional amendment all persons or concerns dealing in liquors in this State under the Volstead law were still required to obtain Maryland licenses. In the interest of economy at the request of the Board of Estimates of Baltimore Governor Ritchie decided to reappoint Mr. Brattan as chairman of the board, and further named Mr. Kerr to membership with the
