

ORDERS—

Requiring the printer to cause to be printed immediately and return all Senate bills now in his hands, 413.

To print 200 copies of report of committee to visit Benevolent Institutions, 460.

In relation to the neglect of the Printer, 477.

In regard to how Mr. Stirling would have voted, if he had been present, on bill in regard to Acts of Assembly, 502.

In relation to the absence of the Senator from Worcester, 511.

Directing the Committee on Claims to pay Alfred Spates the usual per diem, 511.

In regard to the illness of Joseph Lynch, messenger, 511.

In relation to the consideration of bills of a general character, 520.

In relation to the indisposition of S. L. Booth, doorkeeper, 520.

Entered on the journal that had Senator Stirling been in his seat when the vote was taken for United States Senator, he would have voted for Philip F. Thomas, 538.

To pay Augustus Gassaway for extra services, 580.

That the Secretary employ an additional committee clerk, 596.

Directing Committee on Claims to issue certificate to Thomas A. Mitchell, as special doorkeeper to the Senate, 601.

That the County Commissioners of Carrol county report the amount of bounty certificates issued, and the amount of bounty money received and expended by them, stating names of persons, &c., 601.

That W. H. Guy have leave of absence for remainder of session, and that James T. Haines be appointed folder, 607.

Directing the Comptroller to report how many of the members and officers of the extra session of the Legislature of 1861 have been paid, &c., 607.