Answer. I went to the polls in my District, on said day, and could not get to the window, on account of the crowd there, there were armed men standing there on one end of the porch and men coming in on the other. I saw there many good Constitutional men, who could not get to vote; their tickets being refused by the Judges, and I therefore turned off and went home without voting; The name of Alfred Spates for States Senator, was printed on the ticket I had and wished to vote.
