

construed to apply to all proceedings in Executive Session, except the names of nominees, and the confirmations or rejection thereof, without the privilege of assigning reasons pending the injunction or disclosing the vote or opinion of any Senator.

LVII.

In addition to the Standing Committees of the Senate, there shall be appointed, by the President, an Executive Committee on Executive Nominations to consist of five members, whose duty it shall be, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate, to examine all recommendations made to the Executive in favor of applicants for office, and all communications received by the Executive opposed to the appointment of any applicant, so far as said recommendations and communications may be communicated to said Committee by the Executive, and report thereon.

LVIII.

It shall not be permitted to any Senator, in the form of any Order, Resolution or otherwise, to place upon the Journals any observation made by himself or another, touching the character or fitness for office of any individual.

LIX.

During the recess of the Legislature, the Senate Chamber, Committee Rooms and President's Room shall be under the care and control of the Secretary of the Senate.
