

BY THE SENATE,

January 4th, 1867.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received your message proposing the appointment of a Joint Committee of five members on the part of your House, and five on the part of the Senate, to prepare and report a bill for the call of a Constitutional Convention, and appointing on the part of your Honorable Body, Messrs. Carmichael, Phelps, Knott, Bixler and Morgan.

We respectfully concur in the object of your message, and have appointed on the part of the Senate, Messrs. Bowie, Kimmel, Vickers, Maddox and Brodwater.

By order,

A. GASSAWAY,

Secretary.

Which was read.

Mr. Neilson presented a memorial from citizens of the sixth ward of Baltimore city, in relation to the Mayoralty Election;

Which was read, and referred to the Baltimore city Delegation.

The Speaker laid before the House the sixth annual report of the trustees of the Baltimore Female College;

Which was read, and referred to the Committee on Education.

Also, the following report of the Treasurer of Maryland:

[See Document C.]

Which was read, and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Knott moved to re-consider the order adopted on Friday for the printing of twenty-five thousand copies of the Governor's Message and accompanying documents;

Decided in the affirmative.

Mr. Knott moved to strike out the words, "and accompanying documents."

Mr. Boswell moved to amend by inserting "twenty thousand copies of the Governor's Message in English, and five thousand in German, and fifteen thousand copies of the accompanying documents;

Mr. Knott called for a division of the question.