

The door-keeper was sent after the absent members.

The door-keeper returned and reported that he had notified all the members who were in the city to attend.

On motion of Mr. Thomas,

All further proceedings under the call were dispensed with.

The said bill being under consideration,

Mr. Hammond submitted the following amendment to the preamble :

At the end of the first page insert :

And whereas, There is every reason to believe that the persons so deprived of the right of voting and of holding office, are now faithful to the State and to the government of the United States.

Which was adopted.

The bill was then read the third time and passed by yeas and nays as follows :
