BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,

January 22, 1867.

Gentlemen of the Senate :

We have received your message requesting this House to return to your Honorable Body, the bill entitled, an Act to repeal the fourth, seventh, fifteenth, sixteenth and twentieth sections of the fourth article of the Public Local Laws, of the city of Baltimore, relating to the qualifications of electors in said city, and regulating the time for holding elections for Mayor and Members of the City Council, and the terms of, and the times for entering upon the duties of said offices, and to re-enact the same with amendment; we concur in said message, and herewith return said bill to your Honorable Body.

By order,

W. R. COLE,

Chief Clerk.

Which was read, assented to and sent to the Senate.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following bill:

A bill entitled, an Act to add additional sections to the Code of Public General Laws, title Small Pox;

Which was referred to Messrs. Dennis, Phelps, Wilson, Pitts and Evans.

On motion of Mr. Neilson,

Leave was granted to Committee on Judiciary to present a bill entitled, an Act to add new sections to Article thirty of the Code of Public General laws relating to crimes and punishments.

Mr. Evans submitted the following

RESOLUTIONS:

Resolved, by the General Assembly of Maryland.

1st. That to prevent anarchy, confusion and irregular-unauthorized government, it is expedient that proposals to create, or to alter and amend a Constitution, should emanate from the Legislature.
