The question then recurred upon the bill;

Mr. Carmichael proposed the following amendment:

AMENDMENT PROPOSED.

1st Section, 5th and 6th line: strike out the words "on or before the first Monday of February in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-seven," and insert in lieu thereof, "Within ten days after the passage of this Act;"

Which was adopted.

Also the following amendment:

Section 1, line 24: Strike out all after the word "Commissioners,"

Which was adopted.

Mr. Gorsuch proposed the following amendment:

In section 2, line 2d, between the words "courts and for," insert "Judges of the Orphans' Courts;"

Which was adopted.

Also, after the word "select," in line 13, insert the words, "alternately one name;"

Which was adopted.

Mr. Carmichael proposed the following:

"Section 9. And be it enacted, That no terms of any of the courts aforesaid, shall be held until juries therefor can be selected and summoned in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and in case the times now fixed by law, for holding the regular terms of any of said courts, shall arrive before juries may be summoned in accordance with the provisions of this Act, it shall be the duty of the judges of said courts to discharge the juries which may have been summoned by the sheriffs of said counties or any of them, without reference to this Act, and to adjourn said term or terms for such time as may be requisite to enable Juries to be selected and summoned according to the provisions of this Act, and to direct a venire facias to issue for summoning the Jurors who may be selected for such adjourned term or terms, according to this Act, and to fix the day on which said venire facias shall be returnable,
